

MSMWJ302 - Operate a drain cleaning system (Release 1) – Single unit of competency

Description: This nationally accredited unit of competency aims to provide participants with the basic skills and knowledge to operate drain cleaning equipment in a safe and efficient manner. In accordance with the high-pressure water jetting standard AS 4233:1. 2013, all operators of Class “B” drain cleaning machines shall be trained.

Outcomes: Statement of Attainment for MSMWJ302 - Operate a drain cleaning system (Release 1).

Unit of competency:

- MSMWJ302 – Operate a drain cleaning system

Admission criteria:

- USI (if you do not have a USI, please visit www.usi.gov.au)
- 18+ years old
- Government or Employer issued photo ID
- If Australian Citizen or Permanent Resident, copy of Medicare card or Australian Passport or Australian Birth Certificate
- If not Australian Citizen or Permanent Resident, copy of passport and permission to conduct a VEVO check (so eligibility to study in Australia can be determined)
- Minimum of year 10 completed at school
- Basic numeracy, literacy, English language skills and physical ability

Progression: N/A

Duration: 1 Day

Cost: $420 per person (GST Exempt). Please contact us for group bookings and/or regional area costs.

Location: All-Ways Training Services: 16 Redemptora Road, Henderson, WA 6166; 2/28 Bluett Dve, Smeaton Grange NSW 2567.

Upon arrangement, also available at suitable client sites.

Mode of delivery: This course is delivered face-to-face and contains theory and practical components.

Third-Party delivery: Please note that training is carried out on behalf of All-Ways Training Services by WOMA (Australia) Pty Ltd. All-Ways Training Services is responsible for the quality of training and the issuing of Statements of Attainment. WOMA can be contacted on (08) 9434 6622, hpwater@woma.com.au or at 16 Redemptora Road, Henderson, WA 6166. www.woma.com.au

For more details on appeals, complaints, PPE requirements, refunds, fees and admission criteria, please contact us or visit our website.